Ask yourselves a question who are you following or believing? I will tell you why I am saying this to you, I have spoken to many different people from different religions and their doctrine is mixed with doubt and unbelief in Jesus Christ? Please read the red letters and ask yourselves who you believe, you may be surprised at what you see. Are you putting men before God? Are you following Pharisees or Sadducees or someone else, One thing I have noticed about them they all believe they are right, many have doctrines of men, and not of God. I would check if I was you, there is a big cost of your soul in the balance. The just shall live by faith: In Jesus.
